

Community Service Award Conditions and Qualifications

Rules

- Applications considered on a rolling basis. Final deadline is March 8, 2017
- Submit your application to us at contact@jrobinsoncamps.com.
- We will review all submitted applications and accept 20
- Notification of acceptance will be sent by March 15, possibly much earlier for early submissions
- You must complete 25 hours of community service at least 3 weeks prior to camp. None of these hours may come from volunteering in a wrestling-related activity. You must volunteer for a non-wrestling-related organization or organizations.
- Award only applicable to 2017 JROB Intensive Camps

Application Process

The J Robinson Intensive Camps Community Service Award application must be completed and accepted by J Robinson Intensive Camps before you can begin to accrue your 25 hours of community service. We will not retroactively count community service hours that you have already worked in the past. We will accept 20 applications, and we reserve the right to select/deny applications for any reason.

Community Service Definition

Community Service hours must be unpaid activities done with time given freely of one's own will and not because of any requirement (e.g. National Honor Society, School Requirement). Community service is designed to improve a community, and can occur in a wide variety of fields, including the following:

- Health care
- Literacy training
- Education
- Transportation
- Religious institutions
- Housing/neighborhood development
- Public safety
- Environmental projects
- Recreation/sports*
- Rural development
- Community improvement
- Nonprofits

IMPORTANT: If you choose to volunteer your time with a local recreation or sports club, it MAY NOT be wrestling-related.

Hours Verification Requirements

Once all 25 hours are completed, in order to receive the award you must submit a letter from the organization or organizations that you volunteered for certifying the amount of hours that you have completed. These letters must be on official letterhead from each organization and include contact information for someone at the organization who can verify the hours. The contact person may not be a family member. Send the letters to contact@jrobinsoncamps.com.

Discount Combinations

The Community Service Award may be combined with any other discount that J Robinson Intensive Camps offers.

Acceptable Activities

J Robinson Intensive Camps reserves the right to approve/disapprove community service hours submitted. If you are unsure whether an activity will qualify, contact us beforehand for approval by emailing contact@jrobinsoncamps.com and describing the organization that you would like to volunteer for and the activity in which you will be participating.
